

Emergency Message for U.S. Citizens: Flooding in Northern Greece

Floods

Europe > Greece > Thessaloniki

2/8/2012

Heavy rains in Bulgaria are causing dangerous flooding of the Evros River along Greece's northeastern border with Turkey. Authorities in Northern Greece are taking measures to manage the flood waters, which include evacuation of at-risk areas. U.S. citizens in the region are advised to monitor local conditions closely, to avoid the river and its tributaries while risk of flooding persists, and to follow the instructions and guidance of local officials.

More generally, we encourage you to review your personal security plans, remain aware of your surroundings and local events, monitor local news stations for updates, and report specific incidences of targeted violence to the U.S. Consulate General in Thessaloniki or the U.S. Embassy in Athens. .

We strongly recommend that U.S. Citizens and nationals traveling to or residing in Greece enroll in the State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program (STEP). U.S. Citizens and nationals without internet access may enroll directly with the nearest U.S. Embassy or Consulate. Enrolling signs you up to receive updated information about areas abroad and makes it easier for the U.S. Embassy or Consulate to contact you or your designated contact in case of an emergency.

Current information on safety and security can also be obtained by calling 1-888-407-4747 toll-free in the United States and Canada or, a regular toll line at +1-202-501-4444 for callers from other countries.
