

Emergency Message for U.S. Citizens: Ankara (Turkey), Demonstration at U.S. Embassy (April 3) Significant Events

Europe > Turkey > Ankara

4/2/2012

A demonstration is expected to take place between the early afternoon hours of 12pm and 3pm on Tuesday, April 3, 2012, in Ankara that could impact anyone in the vicinity of the U.S. Embassy. The protesters are expected to organize in the Kizilay district and march towards the U.S. Embassy. This protest is expected to be peaceful, but even peaceful demonstrations can sometimes turn violent and the U.S. Embassy in Ankara reminds U.S. citizens of the fluid security situation in Turkey and the need to maintain constant awareness of one's surroundings.

The Department of State advises U.S. citizens traveling or residing in Turkey to be alert to the potential for violence, to avoid those areas where disturbances have occurred, and to avoid demonstrations and large gatherings. Even demonstrations intended to be peaceful can turn confrontational and possibly escalate into violence. U.S. citizens are therefore urged to avoid the areas of demonstrations if possible, and to exercise caution if within the vicinity of any demonstrations.

We strongly recommend that U.S. citizens and nationals traveling to or residing in Turkey enroll in the State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program (STEP). U.S. citizens and nationals without Internet access may enroll directly with the nearest U.S. Embassy or Consulate. Enrolling signs you up to receive updated information about areas abroad and make it easier for the U.S. Embassy or Consulate to contact you or your designated contact in case of emergency.

Current information on safety and security can also be obtained by calling 1-888-407-4747 toll-free in the United States and Canada or, a regular toll line at +1-202-501-4444 for callers from other countries. These numbers are available from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Eastern Time, Monday through Friday (except U.S. federal holidays).
