

Emergency Message for U.S. Citizens: Bissau (Guinea-Bissau), Reported Fighting and Civil Unrest

Coup d'etats

Africa > Guinea-Bissau > Bissau

4/12/2012

This message is to inform U.S. citizens in Guinea-Bissau that the U.S. Embassy has received reports of fighting and violence in Bissau, possibly as a result of a coup d'état or a coup attempt. The threat of continued violence and an increased potential for political instability and civil or military unrest in Guinea-Bissau remains high. U.S. citizens are urged to shelter in place and avoid the downtown area of Bissau. The U.S. Embassy encourages U.S. citizens to use caution in the coming days should fighting and unrest ensue and to avoid demonstrations.

U.S. citizens are encouraged to stay informed and to practice good situational awareness when they are moving about in Guinea-Bissau. U.S. citizens should carefully consider the current security situation before making plans to travel in Bissau. We remind U.S. citizens that even demonstrations intended to be peaceful can quickly and without much advance warning turn confrontational and escalate into violence. The U.S. Embassy, therefore, urges U.S. citizens to avoid crowds, political gatherings, and street demonstrations, even if they appear to be peaceful, and to exercise caution if within the vicinity of any demonstrations or apparent fighting. U.S. citizens should stay current with media coverage of local events and be aware of their surroundings at all times.

There is currently no permanent U.S. diplomatic or consular presence in Guinea-Bissau. The U.S. Embassy in Dakar, Senegal is accredited for all diplomatic and security concerns. The U.S. Liaison Office in Bissau (BLO) can provide limited services to U.S. citizens in the event of an emergency. However, all security and consular services should be coordinated through American Citizens Services Section and the Regional Security Office at the U.S. Embassy in Dakar, Senegal. The U.S. Liaison Office is located at: Edifício SITEC, Rua José Carlos Schwarz 245, Bairro d'Ajuda (Telephone: 245-325-6382).
