

Emergency Message for U.S. Citizens: La Paz (Bolivia), Wide-spread Blockades and Demonstrations Riots/Civil Unrest

Western Hemisphere > Bolivia > La Paz

5/7/2012

This Emergency Message informs U.S. citizens traveling to and residing in Bolivia that the U.S. Embassy in La Paz is not providing services to the public today due to transportation strikes, road blocks, and demonstrations that are taking place in La Paz today. The strikes are expected to affect the entire city, major roads, as well the access roads to the airport. Please note that the Consular Agencies in Cochabamba and Santa Cruz are operating as normal.

Please check on the Embassy website at <http://Bolivia.usembassy.gov> to find out when the Embassy in La Paz will provide services again. In case of an emergency, please contact the duty officer at tel. 715-337-13.

U.S. citizens are reminded of the following emergency preparedness advice and directives:

- Maintain an adequate supply of food, water, medicines, and any other necessary items for your family on hand in your home.
- Fill your vehicle with gas and maintain at least a half-filled tank at all times.
- Avoid areas where roadblocks and demonstrations are occurring.
- Do not attempt to run blockades.
- Monitor local media for updates.

The U.S. Embassy reminds you that demonstrations and road blockades are not unusual in Bolivia, and even though they might be intended to be peaceful they can turn confrontational between security forces, demonstrators, and bystanders, and escalate into violence. You should avoid them if at all possible. If you find yourself in the vicinity of a large gathering, you should leave the area immediately for your own safety. Be alert and aware of your surroundings and pay attention to what the local media have to say. Please note that the police have limited capabilities outside major cities and communication is poor.

You can stay in touch and get Embassy updates by checking the Embassy website, found here.
