The United States Consulate General in Chengdu would like to inform U.S. citizens of possible protests in downtown Chengdu on Saturday and Sunday, August 18-19, 2012, related to a territorial dispute in the East China Sea between China and Japan. Similar protests in Chengdu in 2010 resulted in some limited violence as well as property damage. The Consulate General recommends that U.S. citizens be vigilant for signs of protests and avoid areas where large crowds are gathering.
