5/31/2016

Romanian education unions are planning a large protest on Wednesday, June 1st in Bucharest. 15,000 protesters are planned to participate of which 7,000 are arriving from outside of Bucharest. City Hall expects 130 buses parked on Mioria fountain, Chitila, oseaua Colentina, along the 1st traffic lane. The protest is scheduled between 10:00 AM and 2:30 PM in Piata Victoriei - Buzeti Street - Berzei Street - tirbei Vod Street - Splaiul Independenei - Constantin Noica Street - Cotroceni Street - Iuliu Maniu Blvd. – Polytechnic University

The protest activity will directly affect traffic in the following areas:

- In Piaa Victoriei the traffic will be restricted to two lanes in front of the government building between Aviatorilor Blvd., Calea Victoriei and Lascr Catargiu Blvd.
- Paris Street will be one-way traffic only towards Aviatorilor Blvd.

Personal Planning

Due to traffic restrictions and the expected increase of vehicles on the roads please plan accordingly with respect to your daily commute and any activities or meetings that you have planned.
