With the start of the Formula 1 Race in Baku right around the corner, the U.S. Embassy in Azerbaijan is helping U.S. citizens prepare for a safe and successful stay in Baku and throughout Azerbaijan. We invite you to explore and share the following resources containing essential travel information for visitors and residents:

For the latest information about Azerbaijan, including details about health and safety precautions and more, see <https://travel.state.gov/content/passports/en/country/azerbaijan.html>.

U.S. passport holders who have purchased a ticket for the Formula 1 event can get a visa on arrival in Azerbaijan but specific conditions apply. For more details visit the Ministry of Foreign Affairs website. For additional information about visas to Azerbaijan please visit <http://www.azembassy.us/> or <http://www.azconsulatela.org/>. The U.S. Embassy cannot assist with visas or immigration processes.

For up-to-date road closures and other Formula 1 event information, please visit <https://www.bakucitycircuit.com/>.

SMS Notifications: If you would like to receive important messages from U.S. Embassy in Azerbaijan on your phone during your stay, send your local phone number to ConsularBaku@state.gov with "SMS Notification" words and dates of your stay in Azerbaijan in a subject line. Please note that the SMS notifications are available for the holders of local
