

Security Message for U. S. Citizens: Milan (Italy), Planned Demonstration on June 9

Riots/Civil Unrest

Europe > Italy > Milan

6/9/2016

The Italian State Police have advised that on Thursday, June 9, 2016 from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. there will be a large demonstration in Milan sponsored by the several employee unions.

The demonstration march will use the following route: Porta Venezia - Corso Venezia – Via Senato – Piazza Cavour – Via Turati – Via Vittor Pisani – Piazzale Duca d’Aosta (Central Station). The police will monitor this event and expect up to 15,000 participants. They expect the demonstration to be generally peaceful; however, even demonstrations intended to be peaceful can turn confrontational and escalate into violence. Significant traffic delays in the vicinity of the protests are expected.

The U.S. Consulate General in Milan recommends that all U.S. citizens and their families avoid the areas of the demonstration and exercise caution if walking or driving in the vicinity of these events.

The contents of this (U) presentation in no way represent the policies, views, or attitudes of the United States Department of State, or the United States Government, except as otherwise noted (e.g., travel advisories, public statements). The presentation was compiled from various open sources and (U) embassy reporting. Please note that all OSAC products are for internal U.S. private sector security purposes only. Publishing or otherwise distributing OSAC-derived information in a manner inconsistent with this policy may result in the discontinuation of OSAC support.