

Security Message for U.S. Citizens: Tirana (Albania), Parliamentary Vote on July 21st

Other Threat / Incident; Riots/Civil Unrest

Europe > Albania; Europe > Albania > Tirana

7/19/2016

The U.S. Embassy in Tirana informs U.S. citizens that the Albanian Parliament is scheduled to vote on the issue of judicial reform on July 21st.

The Embassy is not aware of any specific threats against U.S. citizens or interests. However, U.S. citizens should remain vigilant and avoid any demonstrations or gatherings that may take place in the lead up to or after the vote. Citizens should monitor local media and factor updated information into personal travel plans and activities.

All U.S. visitors or residents in Albania should be aware of their local security situation and review our Europe Travel Alert.

Specific safety concerns should be addressed to Albanian law enforcement authorities who are responsible for the safety of all visitors to Albania.
