

Security Message for U.S. Citizens: Tokyo (Japan), 71st Anniversary of Hiroshima and Nagasaki Bombings

Riots/Civil Unrest

East Asia & Pacific > Japan > Tokyo

8/5/2016

On Saturday, August 6 and Tuesday, August 9 between approximately 8:00 AM and 6:00 PM, demonstrations are expected at the U.S. Embassy and surrounding areas to call attention to the anniversaries of the World War II bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Monday, August 15, which marks the end of the war, may also draw protests from various groups.

During these annual events, the protestors drive around the Embassy and surrounding areas in approximately 100 to 200 vehicles, making pronouncements through loudspeakers attached to the roofs. These vehicles will likely disrupt traffic flow in adjacent streets.

Even demonstrations intended to be peaceful can turn confrontational and escalate into violence. You should avoid areas of demonstrations, and exercise caution if in the vicinity of any large gatherings, protests, or demonstrations. Please be aware of your surroundings if you enter or depart the embassy or consulates.
