

Security Message for U.S. Citizens: Chisinau (Moldova), Planned Demonstration on August 30

Riots/Civil Unrest

Europe > Moldova > Chisinau

8/30/2016

The U.S. Embassy has been monitoring reports that a protest is scheduled to take place in front of our building (strada A. Mateevici, 103) at 10AM today. We have no information to indicate this will be violent. The entrance to the Embassy may be affected during the protest.

Remember that demonstrations and large events intended to be peaceful can turn violent. Avoid areas of demonstrations, and exercise caution if in the vicinity of any large gatherings, protests, or demonstrations. Large public gatherings can affect all major incoming arteries to the city in which they occur. Demonstrations in one city have the potential to lead to additional public rallies or demonstrations in other locations around the city and country.
