

Security Message for U.S. Citizens: Baghdad (Iraq), Travel Warning Reminder

Terrorism

Near East > Iraq

9/11/2016

The U.S. Embassy in Iraq, noting the upcoming holidays in Iraq, to include Eid al-Adha, Islamic New Year, and Ashura, reminds all U.S. citizens of the inherent dangers of life in Iraq. Terrorists have chosen times around local holidays to set off bombs in crowded areas, including attacks in Baghdad in July and September of this year. The Travel Warning for Iraq can be found on the Department of State website, and we urge all U.S. citizens to read it.

The contents of this (U) presentation in no way represent the policies, views, or attitudes of the United States Department of State, or the United States Government, except as otherwise noted (e.g., travel advisories, public statements). The presentation was compiled from various open sources and (U) embassy reporting. Please note that all OSAC products are for internal U.S. private sector security purposes only. Publishing or otherwise distributing OSAC-derived information in a manner inconsistent with this policy may result in the discontinuation of OSAC support.