

Security Message for U.S. Citizens: Beijing (China), Holiday Security Reminder

Terrorism

East Asia & Pacific > China

12/5/2016

In the lead up to the holiday season, the U.S. Embassy in Beijing and the Consulates General throughout China remind U.S. citizens in China to remain vigilant to the continuing threat of terrorist actions and violence against U.S. citizens and interests around the world.

The Department of State recently issued an updated Travel Alert for Europe advising U.S. citizens to exercise caution during festivals, events, and outdoor markets. The Department also has in effect a worldwide caution, alerting U.S. citizens to the continuing threat of terrorist actions and violence against U.S. citizens and interests throughout the world.

As you plan your travels and holiday activities, check the State Department's travel website for the latest Worldwide Caution, Travel Warnings, and Travel Alerts, as well as useful Country Specific Information.

Enroll your trip in the Smart Traveler Enrollment Program (STEP) to receive security messages and make it easier to locate you in an emergency.

From everyone at the Embassy and the Consulates General, happy holidays and safe travels! Please see our website for additional information and contact information for the Embassy or the Consulates General nearest you.

The contents of this (U) presentation in no way represent the policies, views, or attitudes of the United States Department of State, or the United States Government, except as otherwise noted (e.g., travel advisories, public statements). The presentation was compiled from various open sources and (U) embassy reporting. Please note that all OSAC products are for internal U.S. private sector security purposes only. Publishing or otherwise distributing OSAC-derived information in a manner inconsistent with this policy may result in the discontinuation of OSAC support.